General information regarding the courses

Gesellig Afrikaans 1 (basic course for Afrikaans as foreign language) is aimed at students who are 16 years and older with no prior knowledge and/or exposure to Afrikaans. The basic course (Gesellig Afrikaans 1) focuses on vocabulary, pronunciation, listening skills, and basic Afrikaans communication. The basic course can give you access to the advanced course (Gesellig Afrikaans 2).

Gesellig Afrikaans 2 (advanced course for Afrikaans as foreign language) is aimed at students who are 16 years and older with passive prior knowledge of Afrikaans as a foreign language (such as completing the basic course, Gesellig Afrikaans 1). This is not aimed at learners / students who were enrolled for Afrikaans as a school subject (either first or second additional language) in their final school year.

Important information regarding assessment

The final mark for the course will consist of marks allocated for the work you have done before the final assessment (50% of the final mark) and the mark that you will receive for the final test (50% of the final mark).

Important information regarding application / registration

Applications can be submitted between 15 January and 31 May. Students will receive an invoice after application. The payment details and reference number will appear on the invoice and will be valid for 30 days.

After proof of payment has been received via email, the course content will be opened by the administrator. The student will receive a notification informing them that the course has started and will be available for 20 weeks.
